Re: Scores Las Vegas and Scores Chicago
Diaz v. Scores Holding (1:07-cv-087180-RMB)

Dear Mr. Swartz:

This office represents individuals/entities with ownership interest in Scores Las Vegas ("LV") and Scores Chicago ("Chicago"). It has come to our attention that you have recently filed a class action lawsuit in the Southern District of New York against Scores Holding Co., Inc., Go West Entertainment, Inc. and Scores Entertainment, Inc. (collectively "Defendants"). In this lawsuit, you allege that Defendants own and operate LV and Chicago and you are seeking to represent all employees who have worked at Defendants' club, LV and Chicago.

This correspondence is to advise you that LV and Chicago are separate and distinct entities from each other and from the Defendants you are suing. The employees you are suing on behalf of in New York do not have the same employer as those working for LV and those working for Chicago. LV and Chicago merely pay a licensing fee to use the Scores name and there is no connection between LV, Chicago and Defendants regarding the business operations, management, policies, procedures and ownership.

Should you proceed with any claims directly against LV and/or Chicago or seek damages against them, LV and Chicago will vigorously defend any such lawsuit filed against them, requesting an award of all attorney's fees and costs incurred in defending a frivolous claim.

Thank you for your attention to the foregoing.

Very truly yours,

SHIMON & LOVAAS
A PROFESSIONAL CORPORATION
